The new AW:11 collection, entitled Painting by Numbers takes us on a journey through an English country garden, exploring the eternal appeal of English tradition - an escape from the pace of London, if only for a while.

This season is all about colour and the hues are fresh and bright - a refreshing twist to AW:11. A blank silk canvas is the starting point, pulling from memory and reminiscing, filling in shapes with colour:

swallows, English roses, bluebells, butterflies, dragonflies, and ladybirds breathe a breath of fresh air into the season. British wool also features in the range, trimmed with carved and engraved buttons.

Beautiful Soul is designed by Nicola Woods from London's Notthing Hill. The label has won numerous awards and fans include Samantha Cameron, Laura Bailey, Lily Cole, Sophie Anderton, Kate Nash and singer/songwriter, Gabby Young who provided the soundtrack for the Beautiful Soul's first film.
