Beautiful Soul, the quintessentially British eco luxury fashion label will be presenting its No.3 AW10 collection at London's Fashion Week Press Day (Esthetica) on the 22nd of April at Somerset House, in the beautiful neoclassical Portico Gallery Rooms.

Now a brand that is ec0, luxury and fashion conscious is not the easiest thing to imagine as one is usually sacrificed for the sake of the other. However, Nicola Woods creator of Beautiful Soul has succeeded in producing a collection that combines all three with a clear direction and style.

This collection sees the designer play with vintage kimonos, and the introduction and skillful manipulation of British wool from a rare breed of Shetland ponies sourced from Izzy Lane. What's even better is that all garments adjust and can be worn in a multitude of ways to suit different moods and seasons; after all us women are known to change our minds...
